

Durham Down. Bristol.
July 25-1867.

Very affectionately yours
Mary A Estlin

196

Dear Mr Garrison,

I thank you for your letter from Glasgow. How sorry

I am that you could not be the Highlands! It is always wet - there when rain is about any where, but we did not imagine it would be so continuous

My Father's coat may be worth your accepting, &
I will bring it to you.

It is in close!
Miss M. A. Estlin
Bristol, July 25, 1867.

as to stop your movements.

I trust that we shall meet to-morrow, as I hope to be in London by about 5 p.m. & to call on you between 6 & 7 o'clock.

Do not alter any engagements - but leave word at what <sup>hour</sup> you will be back should you be absent at that time.
My travelling capacity is not quite to be calculated upon the day before hand, so no plan of yours must be interfered with. I shall go to Woods Hotel, Furnivalls Inn, instead of staying at Paddington, because it is within a short walk of your lodgings & will be less hampering if your time is limited to the one evening.

Time is to be close!
 Father's call was to

Time is to be close!
 Father's call was to

Time is to be close!
 Father's call was to

Time is to be close!
 Father's call was to